

klove is my station everytime I'm in my car and even at home. It gives an encouragement to me everyday in a stressful life. The christian songs they play brings the hope and love of Christ to every listener. It is a family friendly programming which I enjoy. So I don't want klove be displaced by LPFM broadcaster providing other programming.